The Barn Restaurant's History

The barn was originally built on the Mose Stutzman farm just 2 miles northeast of here. This aged barn began its new life in the winter of 1974 in a five-day journey across frozen fields to its present location. Be sure to see the pictures in the foyer highlighting that remarkable journey. In 1975, at the age of 115, the Barn opened its doors once again, this time as a full-service restaurant. By dining with us today you are sharing our past and helping to build the future of Sauder Village.
