Guide to the Historic Village

A Living Reminder of Black Swamp Heritage

Your experience at Sauder Village will cover many time periods and highlight many points of interest. The following list will help identify each building's focus.

1. Erie's Farm Shop - This shop, originally located on the Sauder Family Farm before moving here, is where Sauder Woodworking began when Erie Sauder started working with wood at the age of 16.
2. Sauder Cabinet Shop - Paying tribute to the importance of woodworking in this region's development, this shop displays a unique collection of woodworking tools.
3. The Basket Shop - Talented basket makers are at work each day creating a variety of unique baskets.
4. Woodcarver's Shop - Woodcarving was one of the earliest crafts settlers practiced with abundant wood and simple tools. See modern works of art made from wood.
5. The Tinsmith's Shop - In this shop, reproductions of 1700s -1800s traditional tinware are created.
6. Black Swamp Cooperage - Watch and learn as our coopers use tools and methods that have changed little over the centuries to make buckets and barrels.
7. Anna's Spinning Shop - This shop showcases the tradition of spinning fibers into yarn.
8. Barbara's Weaving Shop - Skilled weavers turn threads and rags into beautiful creations on our barn frame loom.
9. St. Mark's Lutheran Church - This church from the early 1900s depicts the religious life of the German Lutherans who helped to settle this region.
10. Dr. McGuffin's Office - Dr. McGuffin built this office in nearby Pettisville in 1911. It features many of the medical instruments used by country doctors of that time.
11. District 16 Schoolhouse - This original one-room school is typical of the type of rural schools attended by children in the early 1900s.
12. Stella Leona Chocolates & Coffees - Offers handmade chocolates, caramels and truffles made with the finest ingredients. Enjoy a sweet with a cup of coffee, our Signature Hot Chocolate or an Arctic blended ice drink.
