43. Wiederkehr Clothing - Moving away from an all-in-one shopping experience, in the 1920s, the dry goods store focused on ready-made items and sewing necessities for making clothing at home. Browse off-the-rack clothing, fancy linens, 1927 Butterick patterns and fashion magazines, buttons, stockings, shoes, and more.

44. Hub Grocery Store - Depicting a "green grocer", this shop offers a look at commonly sought after household staples to meet everyday needs beyond meat and fish such as vegetables, cheeses, and prepackaged foods.

45. Theater - Take a peek at what's playing on the big screen! Engaging people of all ages, silent films were the epitome of modern entertainment in the 1920s. This space is also utilized for public special events and conferences.

46. Speakeasy - The Broken Barrel - With Prohibition in full swing, secret illegal pop up bars known as Speakeasies provided an opportunity to enjoy drink and jazz. Only open for special events, programming and tastings.

47. Main Street Confections - Indulge your sweet tooth in delectable 1920s era candy brands including, Baby Ruth, Charleston Chews, Chuckles, Cracker Jack, Dubble Bubble, Dum Dums, Goobers and more!

48. Restrooms

49. Soda Fountain/Pharmacy - Come and sip a phosphate along with indulging in an ice cream treat or other snacks at the Soda Fountain.

50. District 16 Schoolhouse - This original one-room school is typical of the type of rural schools attended by children in Northwest Ohio.

51. The 1920s Grime Homestead - Experience the beginning of the modern age in this 1920s farmhouse. Visit farm animals in the barnyard.

52. Little Pioneers Homestead - A special place for our youngest guests and their families. Play pretend pioneer in Mary Ann's Cabin, milk the cow in Miller Barn or explore the Children's Discovery Garden. Lots to do and see in this "please touch" area.

53. Blacksmith Shop - Watch the contemporary blacksmith artist at work.

54. Harvesting Building - Group lunchroom and event activity area.

55. Tiffin River Woodworks - Our woodworkers create wooden toys and other fine wooden products.

17. Brush Creek Pottery - Resident potter Mark Nafziger creates traditional and contemporary pottery in his timber-framed studio and showroom where his work is available for purchase.

18. The Nature Center - See our exhibit on Exploring our Ecosystem - Soil, Water, Plants and Wildlife in a fun format for all ages!

19. Water-powered Grist Mill - As the water rushes over the water wheel, our miller shows how corn is turned into corn meal.

20. "Erie Express" Train Station - Drop off only. Pick up the train behind the Elmira Depot (#39).

21. Natives & Newcomers - 1803-1839 - Learn about the lives of the Native Americans and European traders who lived in this area at the time of Ohio's statehood. Visit the authentically reproduced wigwams and trading post.

Pioneer Settlement - 1834-1908

22. Lauber Settlement - Visit the rough constructed log lean-to and a covered wagon similar to those used by the Lauber party settlers when they arrived in 1834 after their long journey from Europe.

23. Log Schoolhouse - This is a representation of an 1840s era school.

24. The Witmer-Roth Home - Original home of Anna Sauder Witmer Roth. c.1844.

25. Eicher Cabin - The original home of Jacob & Barbara Eicher who arrived in Fulton County in the 1850s.

26. The Jail - Originally built in the late 1860s, this unusually constructed jail housed Northwest Ohio's early lawbreakers.

27. Peter Stuckey Farm - An 1870s era farm where Peter & Catherine (Yoder) Stuckey lived and worked. The farmstead includes a home, summer kitchen, wagon shop and bank barn with animals.

28. Pioneer Settlement Restroom

29. Holdeman Church - Original Mennonite church from Pettisville.

30. Sawmill - Operational select Saturdays. (Check our website's calendar.)

1920s Main Street

31. Livery - The livery was an essential business, serving as a "parking garage and gas station" for farmers' horses when coming into town. It also provided horses & buggies to rent when needed and a place for town residents to stable their horses. Horse & Buggy ride begins here. (there is an additional fee)

32. Dr. McGuffin's Office - Dr. McGuffin built this office in nearby Pettisville in 1911. It features many of the medical instruments used by country doctors.

33. Rich Auto Dealership and Gas Station - This reconstructed building highlights the sale and repair of the automobile, one of the most iconic inventions of the 20th century.

34. Ohio Farm Bureau Office - Founded in 1919, stop by this historical office to learn more about the role of the farm bureau in the early 1920s.

35. Farmers & Merchants State Bank - This beautiful replica of an original downtown Archbold bank offers insights into the flourishing economic history of our country before the devastating financial Crash of 1929.

36. Schuck Jewelry Store - More than necklaces, rings, and watches, the jewelry store of the 1920s offered a wide array of high-end items including China sets, porcelain, eyewear, tea services, flatware, cuff link sets, cameras, electric lamps, and much more.

37. Stotzer Hardware Store - Evolved from the general mercantile store and harness shop, the 1920s hardware store offered tools and materials for almost any home or farmstead need.

38. Okuley Barbershop - In the 1900s, the barbershop was one of the social centers of the community. Modern public restrooms are located behind this building.

39. Elmira Train Depot - Trains first appeared in Northwest Ohio in the 1850s. This depot showcases the important role of the rail system. Train Ride - Catch a ride on our train! This free fun-filled ride travels around the perimeter of the Historic Village and stops at the Erie Express Train Station.

40. Community Plaza and Bandstand - The plaza and bandstand adjacent to the depot served to show community pride. Original salvaged bricks from downtown Archbold were used to create the plaza. The traditional bandstand hosts concerts, special programming and events.

41. Caboose - Once a vital part of the railroad, the caboose was the last car on the freight train and provided shelter for the crew.

42. Fire Station - Featuring a 1923 Ford Model T fire truck and an 1893 hand pumper, Fire Station #1 on Main Street offers an inside look at this transitional period of firefighting in the United States.

Guide to the Historic Village

A Living Reminder of Black Swamp Heritage

Your experience at Sauder Village will cover many time periods and highlight many points of interest. The following list will help identify each building's focus.

1. Erie's Farm Shop - This shop, originally located on the Sauder Family Farm before moving here, is where Sauder Woodworking began when Erie Sauder started working with wood at the age of 16.
2. Sauder Cabinet Shop - Paying tribute to the importance of woodworking in this region's development, this shop displays a unique collection of woodworking tools.
3. The Basket Shop - Talented basket makers are at work each day creating a variety of unique baskets.
4. Craft Shop - Watch as crafters blend skill and creativity in hands-on craft making. Woodworking, rug hooking and other handmade craft demonstrations throughout the season.
5. The Tinsmith's Shop - In this shop, reproductions of 1700s-1800s traditional tinware are created.
6. Black Swamp Cooperage - Watch and learn as our coopers use tools and methods that have changed little over the centuries to make wooden buckets.
7. Anna's Spinning Shop - This shop showcases the tradition of spinning fibers into yarn.
8. Barbara's Weaving Shop - Skilled weavers turn threads and rags into beautiful creations on our barn frame loom.
9. St. Mark's Lutheran Church - This early 1900s church depicts the religious life of the German Lutherans who helped settle this region.
10. Restrooms
11. a. Threads of Tradition Quilt Shop - Thousands of bolts of top quality fabric, kits, books, tools, notions, gifts and hand-quilting demonstrations. Long-arm quilting service available.
11. b. Museum Building - Visit our exhibits and learn about the Sauder companies, grain, agriculture, the Great Black Swamp and more.
12. Lauber's General Store & Herb Shop - Brings you back to an era when all of your shopping was in one spot. Browse through our wide selection of collectibles, 'penny' candy, hard-to-find kitchen items, toys, herbs, teas and more.
13. The W.O. Taylor Printing Office - This shop is a reproduction of the community of Archbold's first newspaper office. See how printing was done in the early 1900s.
14. Burlington Glass Works - The studio of internationally acclaimed glass artist Mark Matthews. You may have a chance to see the artist at work, also view and purchase his one-of-a-kind creations.
